POLICIES

Chandler Hall at Bolton Congregational Church offers a warm, welcoming space for gatherings of many kinds, including celebrations, meetings, and community events. Our facility provides a simple and flexible setting while maintaining clear guidelines to ensure a safe, respectful, and well-cared-for environment for all.

What's Included

Rental of Chandler Hall includes the use of tables and chairs available on-site. The space is ideal for a variety of events and can be arranged to suit your needs within the guidelines provided.

Please note that the following are not included in the standard rental:

- Table linens (available for an additional fee)
- Dishware, glassware, or silverware (available for an additional fee)
- Catering equipment (available for an additional fee)
- Kitchen access (available for an additional fee)

Reservations & Deposits

A $100 non-refundable deposit is required to reserve your date.

Additional rental fees and any applicable charges must be paid in advance of your event. A refundable damage deposit may also be required and will be returned provided the facility is left in good condition and all policies are followed.

Use of Space

Your rental includes access only to the designated space(s) reserved. All guests and activities must remain within those areas.

Kitchen access is not included unless arranged in advance through a separate rental agreement.

Decorating Guidelines

We want you to personalize your event while protecting our historic space. For this reason:

- Decorations must be freestanding or table-based only
- Nothing may be attached to walls, ceilings, floors, doors, or fixtures
- The use of tape, tacks, nails, staples, or adhesives is not permitted
- Confetti, glitter, and similar materials are not allowed

All decorations must be removed at the conclusion of your event.

Cleaning Expectations

A cleaning fee is included in your rental; however, renters are responsible for basic cleanup, including:

- Removing all trash to designated outdoor containers
- Returning tables and chairs to their original setup
- Removing all decorations and personal items
- Wiping up any spills

Our staff will take care of deeper cleaning such as floors and restrooms.

Kitchen Use

Kitchen access is available only by advance arrangement and additional fee.

If rented, the kitchen must be cleaned and returned to its original condition after use. Renters are responsible for all food preparation and food safety.

Alcohol Policy

Alcohol may only be served when using approved in-house catering authorized by the church. Outside alcohol service is not permitted.

A Shared Community Space

Chandler Hall is part of an active community. We ask all renters and guests to treat the facility with care and respect. Activities must be appropriate to the setting, and all policies are designed to ensure the space remains welcoming for everyone.
